Thank You

Thank you, First Baptist Church family, for your prayers and many expressions of love and concern for our family at the loss of Eloise. She had requested a short graveside service which Bro. Keith conducted for us. Thanks to my caring BYKOTA Sunday School Class for providing a lovely meal at Gladys' for our family. God grant each of you His amazing grace.

Earlier generations called it "Decoration Day", continuing the tradition of decorating loved ones' graves with flowers, wreaths, and flags. We now observe Memorial Day as a time to commemorate the sacrifices made by fallen soldiers who served in the U.S. Armed Forces. The first Memorial Day (May 30, 1868) Ohio Congressman James Garfield spoke at Arlington Cemetery and more than 5,000 people showed up to decorate the graves of 20,000 Union and Confederate soldiers who died during the Civil War. Memorial Day is still celebrated at Arlington and countless other cemeteries where fallen soldiers are remembered for their sacrifice for our country.
